FRANK CODY HIGH SCHOOL

Volume 9

Frank Cody High School

Detroit, Michigan

Everyday Mr. Schumacher worked in his office, plowing through an acre of paper work.

Mr. Melvyn Smith, sponsor of The Cody Comet 1955-1960, is talking to Mr. Schumacher about the new showcase in front of the main office. This showcase was bought with Comet Funds and presented to the school by Mr. Smith's yearbook staffs.

Mr. Schumacher spoke to the assembled student body in the auditorium for the last time on Wednesday, June 20, 1962.

Mr. Schumacher watched some repair work in the welding shop as Mr. August Cogliandro and Danny Gunnerson fix the drum of the belt sander.

Dedicated To . . .

Herman G. Schumacher,

Principal of Cody High School

September, 1952-June, 1962

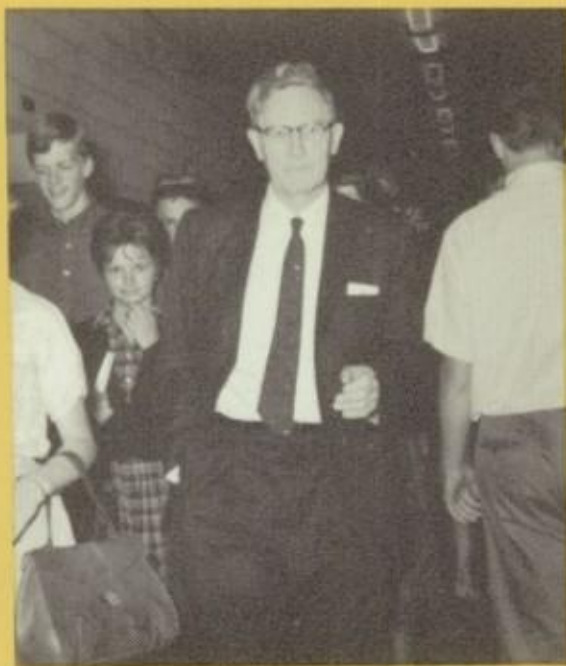

Mr. Ralph Lee, new principal, and friend watched the opening game of the 1962 football season. They saw The Cody Comets defeat the Southwestern Prospectors.

Mrs. Joyce Alexander, art teacher, showed Mr. Schumacher work of students in her crafts classes.

Students often saw Mr. Schumacher walking in the halls during change of classes.

Miss Lucy Duck, assistant principal, frequently consulted Mr. Schumacher on school policies.

Ten years of distinguished service

Mr. Schumacher often toured study halls during the school day.

Mr. Schumacher, like everybody else at Cody High School, always read the Cody Star once a month.

Mr. Ray Agren, assistant principal, worked closely with Mr. Schumacher on improvement of instruction at Cody High School.

One day, Mr. Schumacher walked in on Miss Frances McMullen while she was eating her lunch in the Cody Star Office. No one is supposed to eat outside of the cafeteria, so Mr. Schumacher felt it was his duty to write out a yellow slip.

Mrs. Noreene Leavell looks over Richard Cooney's shoulder as he writes out an assignment from the Cody Star.

Nancy Claypoole receives instructions from Mrs. Eugenia Kinkel on how to punctuate properly a booklet made by secretarial students.

Teachers On Guard

Toni Brochowski looks on as Donna Kinonen weighs a tube of Aluminum-Thiosulfate while Mrs. Eleanor Kovach explains to Gary Green how to write down the weights.

One of the various duties of a counselor is writing out tardy excuses as Mr. Henry Wholihan does here for Alphonse Szczepanik.

At the end of a winning basketball season, Coach Cass Casucci takes up the sport of presidents.

Mr. Julius Simon, shop teacher, hires himself to do minor repairs around the house in preparation for winter.

Teachers Off Guard

Mrs. Wanda Young contradicts the general idea that teachers believe in all work and no play.

Mr. William Foster and Jean Ann Butcher take time off from their work for refreshments.

The dining room windows at the home of Mrs. Awyn Schultze are decorated with only a small part of her extensive collection of antique glass.

Mr. Mark Greyson believes in vigorous preparation for teaching his algebra classes.

Noriko Hitomi, last year's foreign exchange student, played "The Sea in Springtime" on the flute at the Spring Festival.

Spring and Winter Festivals

Linda Forget, accompanied by the Cody Combo, sang "Embraceable You" at the Winter Festival.

Sam Ferrise played the accordion in both the Spring and Winter Festivals.

Charles Bashor plays "Concertino," one of the classical numbers presented at Bandarama.

Mr. Gerald Sima played the part of a janitor in the faculty skit "This Is Your Strife."

Bandarama: 1963

The Cody Combo, directed by Mr. Larry Teal, plays "The Jazz Me Blues."

Marge Lahodny tries to get the gun to protect herself from the insane killer, played by Bob Miller, who is planning her death by hanging.

A climax occurred when Bob Rae was found to be a policeman, not a South African millionaire. Other in the cast are Pete Charney, Cathy Lingeman, Marge Lahodny, Len Pawlowski, Doug Ogozaly, and Bob Miller.

The Fall Play:

"Ten Little Indians"

The whole cast looks down in amazement at the killer's first victim, Len Pawlowski.

Mr. Gerald Sima, director, and Rosemary Iaquinia, student director, look over a long list of last minute details before the final performance.

After a few well-chosen words from Mr. Gerald Sima, the cast of "The Miracle Worker" is ready for another rehearsal.

Spring Play: "The Miracle Worker"

The Kellers (Doug Ogozaly, Leslie Gray) are greatly relieved when the family doctor (Steve Writt) tells them that Helen will live. Little do they know what lies ahead.

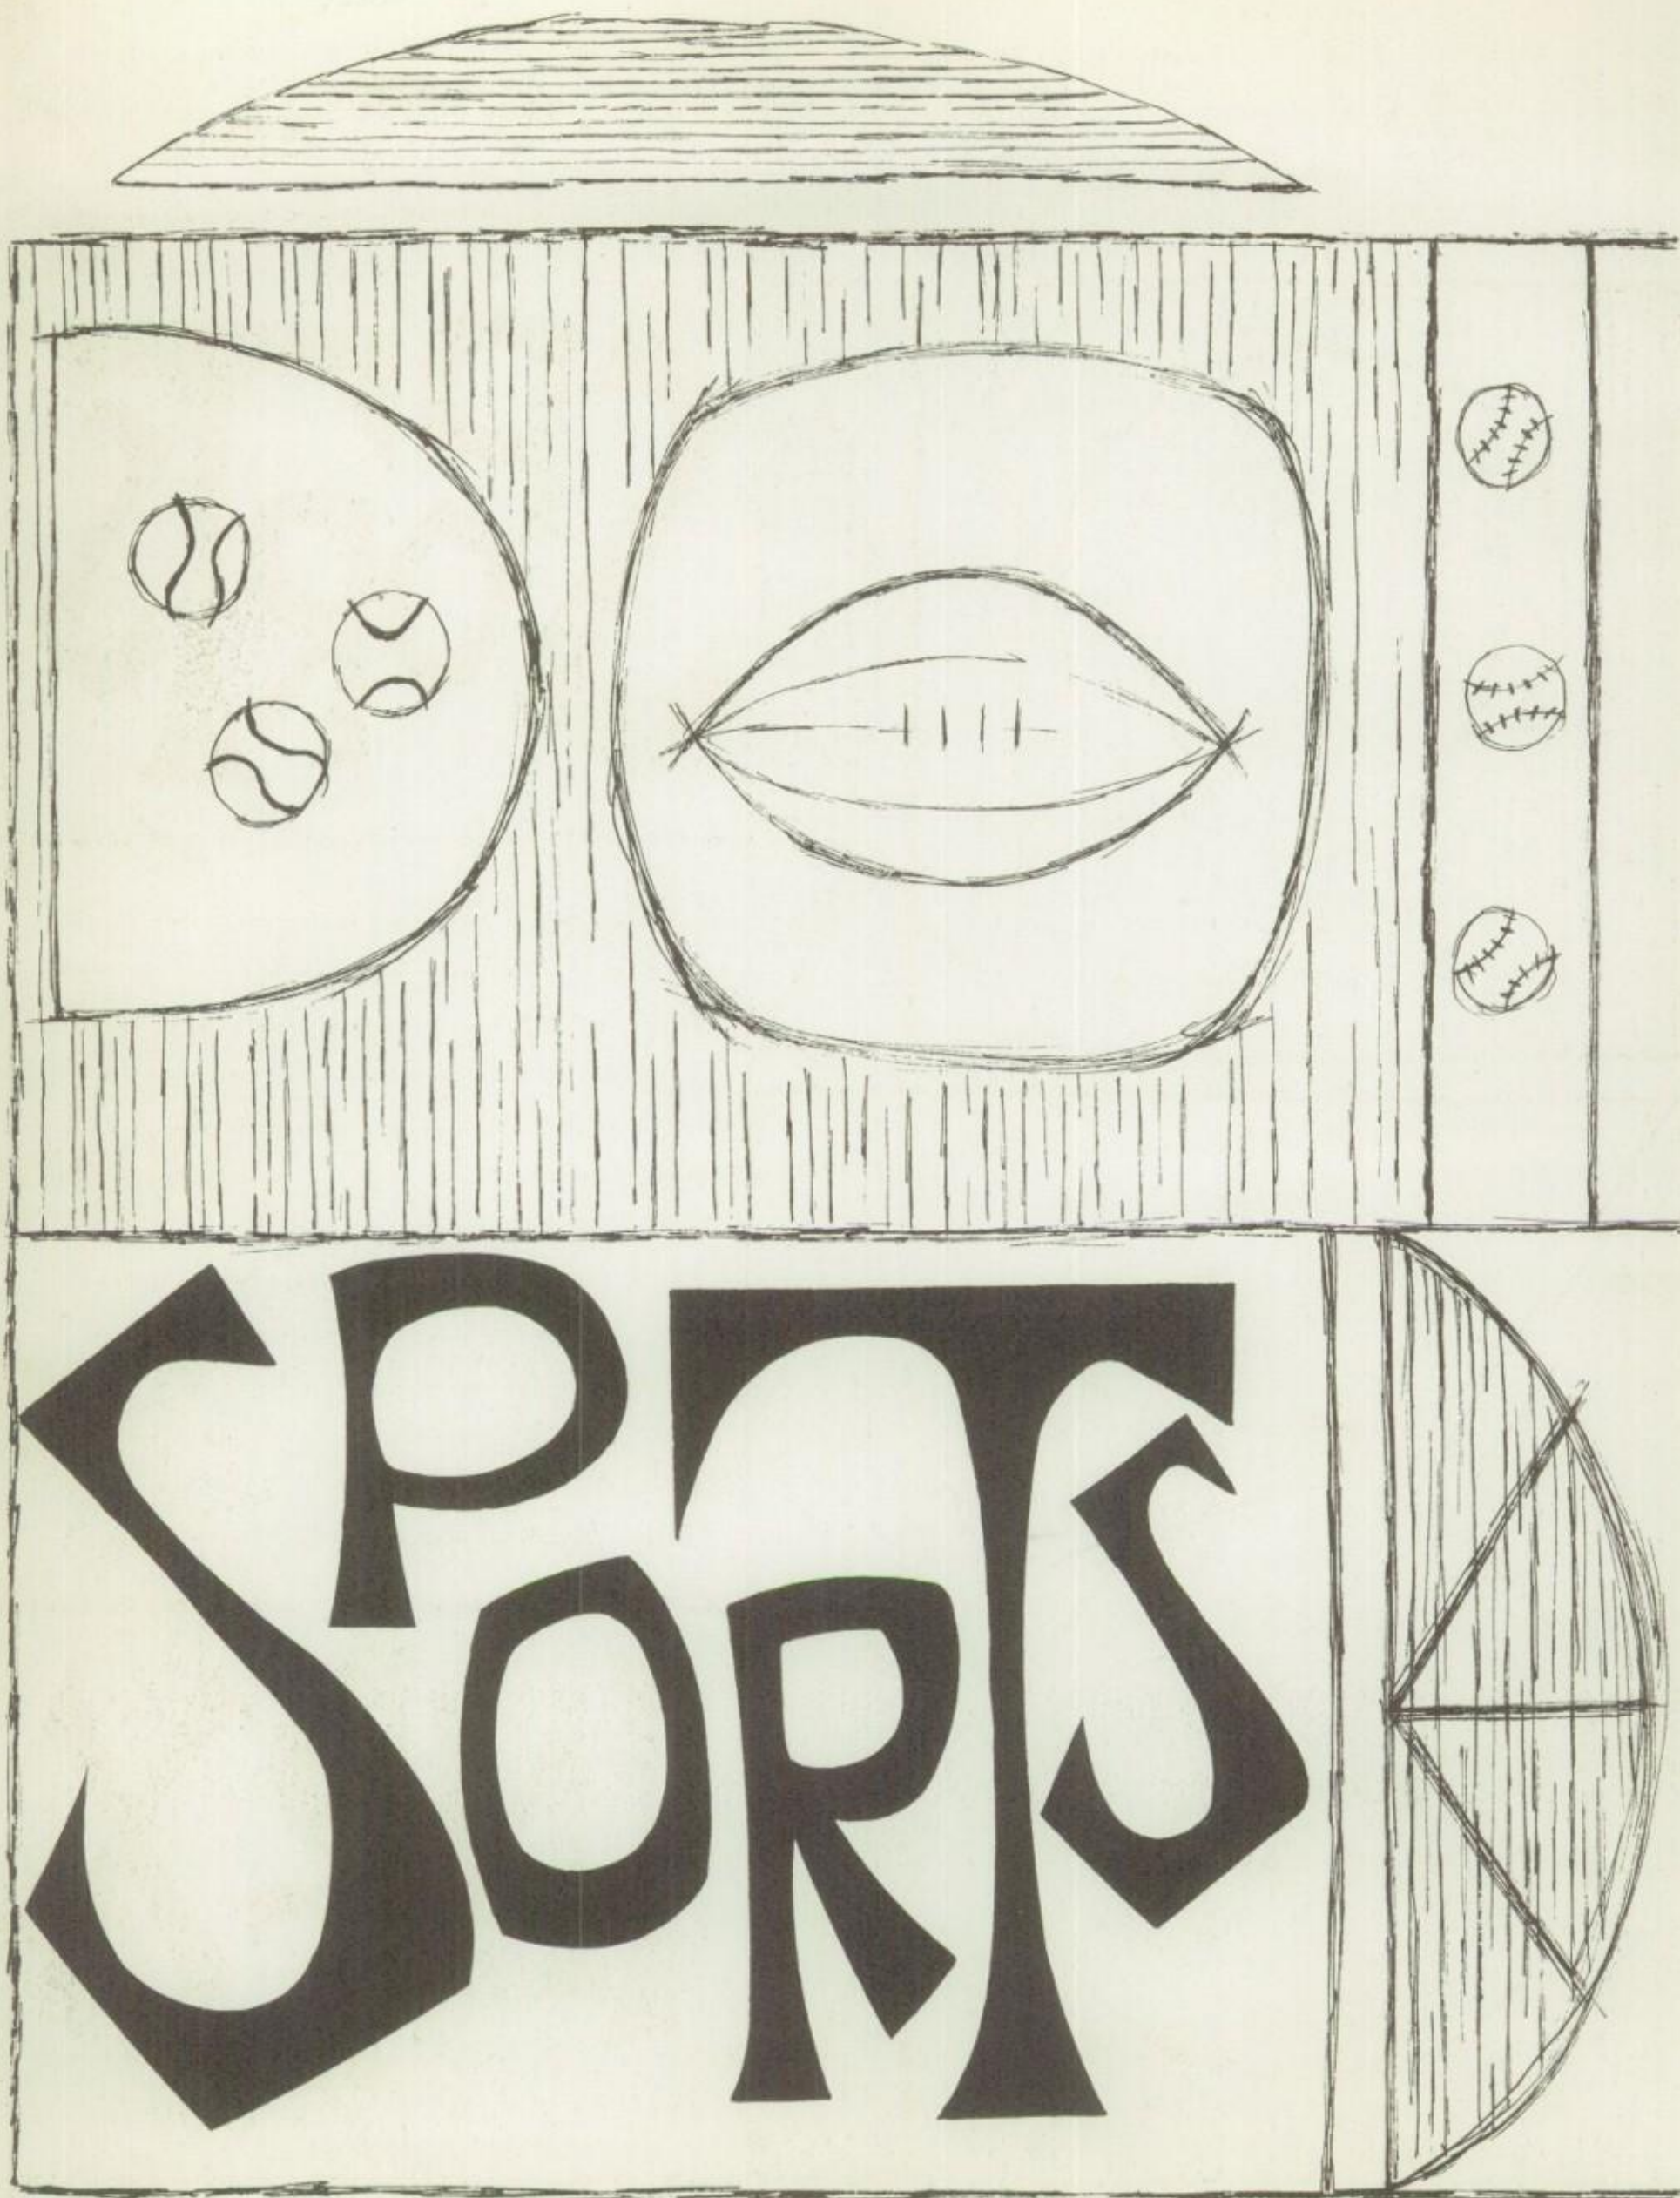

Two weeks of violence and exhaustion produce results. Teacher Annie Sullivan (Marlene Ozier) is proud when her pupil Helen Keller (Pat Ansuini) is guest of honor at a homecoming party.

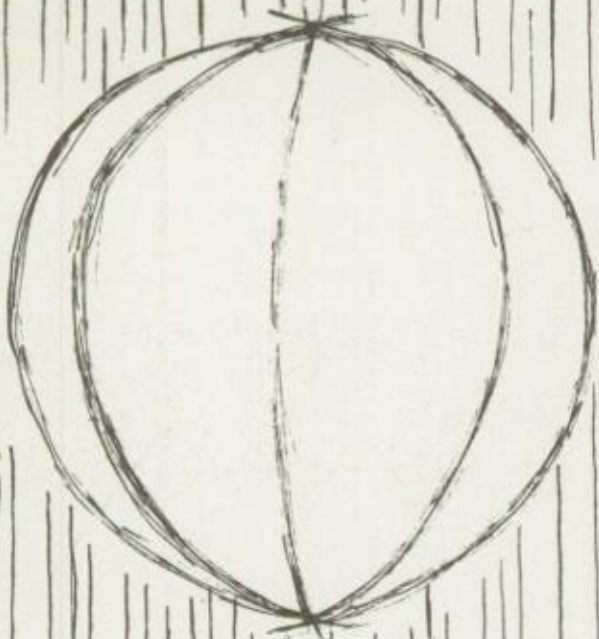

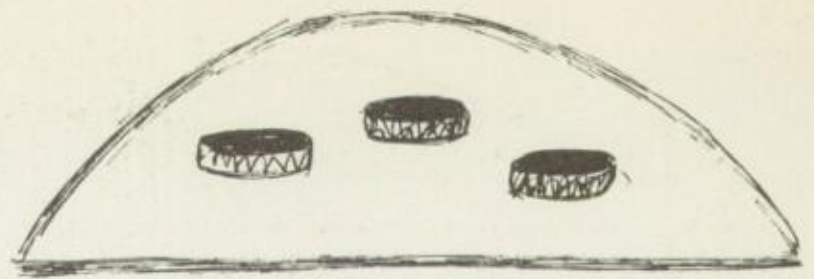

In a climatic scene at the pump, Helen finally learns her first word.

President's Message

As we finish our last semester at Cody High School we find that graduation is a great turning point in our lives.

The future stands before us as a great door slowly opening to reveal a whole world of new experiences.

On the threshold of this new experience, we cannot help but realize that this door serves a twofold purpose. It is opening into the future but closing on the past.

Behind us lie twelve long years of hard study. This study has made possible the opening of the door and our passage into the future.

What lies beyond this door cannot be certain. For some graduates the end of public school education is a stepping stone on the way to higher education. These students will continue their learning at colleges and technical schools.

Others will enter the business world and put to use the training that they received here at Cody.

Many of us will serve our country and protect the future that we all look forward to.

These among others are the things that we are looking for when we find the door to the future lying open before us.

With a determination to succeed and a faith in God and our country, members of the January, 1963 graduating class look confidently toward their futures.

President's Message

Our years at Cody have not been spent in vain. During the last four years, we have been learning, maturing, and above all, preparing ourselves for the future. We have, each in our own way, been preparing for and gaining the necessary requirements to achieve our various goals. However different our preparations may have been, they all had something in common; most of them began in high-school. We are fortunate to have attended a school which could satisfy our many needs.

Voltaire once said, "Chance is a word void of sense; nothing can exist without a cause." Those who were fortunate enough to realize this, also recognized the fact that a decent future seldom can be attributed to chance; it must be caused. Our futures have found a cause, a cause which had its beginning here at Cody.

Our lives could almost be likened to a painting. If the composition and colors are put together in a haphazard way, with no thought or planning, the result will not be as pleasant as one might have wished. A good, solid composition does not just fall together. It must be caused. With planning, patience, and honest effort, the composition will materialize into an even greater painting, one of ourselves as adults.

CHESS CLUB members John Talpa and James Smith attend meetings every Friday in Room 201. Great minds meet here, according to Mr. Patrick McNamara, physics teacher. He added that Slow Chess (or Checkers) is provided for members who want to avoid strain on the brain.

FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB members are making valentines for little patients at Children's Hospital. The purpose of the club is to acquaint students with various aspects of the teaching profession. They do cadet teaching at Everett Elementary School and go on eld trips supervised by Mrs. Wanda Young, Miss Sandra Timmerbacka, and Mrs. Elizabeth Larkins, Cody business teachers. This meeting was attended by: Diane Dunn (president), Mrs. Wanda Young (sponsor), Susan Brandt (program chairman), Marjorie Lebeck, Diana Wallace, Darlene Buza, Judy Grant, Judy Buckwitz, Jacqueline Shotwell (treasurer), Maureen Borg (secretary), Eugenia Federici (vice-president), Robert Crossmeyer, Thomas Krupka, Patricia Kohring.

THE HUMAN RELATIONS CLUB is discussing a book drive. Members plan to send books to the Philippine Islands. They want to give books to people who have none or who have access only to communist slanted books. First Row: Mr. Eugene Link (sponsor), Steven Mitchell, John Manzi, Ron Medico (treasurer). Second Row: Rosemarie Biel, Karen Vardy, Helga Gable, Brian Kujawa. Third Row: Joan Berjeski (president), Mrs. Sylvia Druckman, Zelmira Rojas (exchange student), Mr. Frank Leiderman (sponsor). Fourth Row: Janet Bondy, Sandra McCoy, Mr. Kenneth Miyoshi. Fifth Row: Shirley Pudney, Linda Thompson, Toni Fontes (vice-president).

CLUBS

COIN CLUB members investigate the history of coins and the money-making opportunities for collectors. The minute the photographer finished taking this picture, they asked him if they might inspect his change. Eddie Stonebraker, Mr. George Needell (sponsor), Gerald Silhanek (treasurer), Steven Mitchell (president), Greg Jablonski, Jim Fornell (vice-president).

POETRY CLUB members are analyzing "The Canonization" by John Donne under the guidance of Joseph Longshaw II. Using the techniques of the New Criticism, members of Euterpe are searching the poem for ambiguity, paradox, and irony. First Row: Jim Lomako, Anthony Meka. Second Row: Phyllis Hillson, Luanne Bayer. Third Row: Maureen Borg, Eugenia Federici. Fourth Row: John Schlieman, Miss Frances McMullen, faculty sponsor.

THE SCIENCE CLUB and Mr. Ward Hair, faculty sponsor, are checking incubated eggs for temperature and humidity. The twofold purpose of this club is to bring together high school students who share a common interest in science and to make science a more popular subject in high school. Members are Pat Green, Pam Walker, Steven Mitchell, and Eugene Kruze.

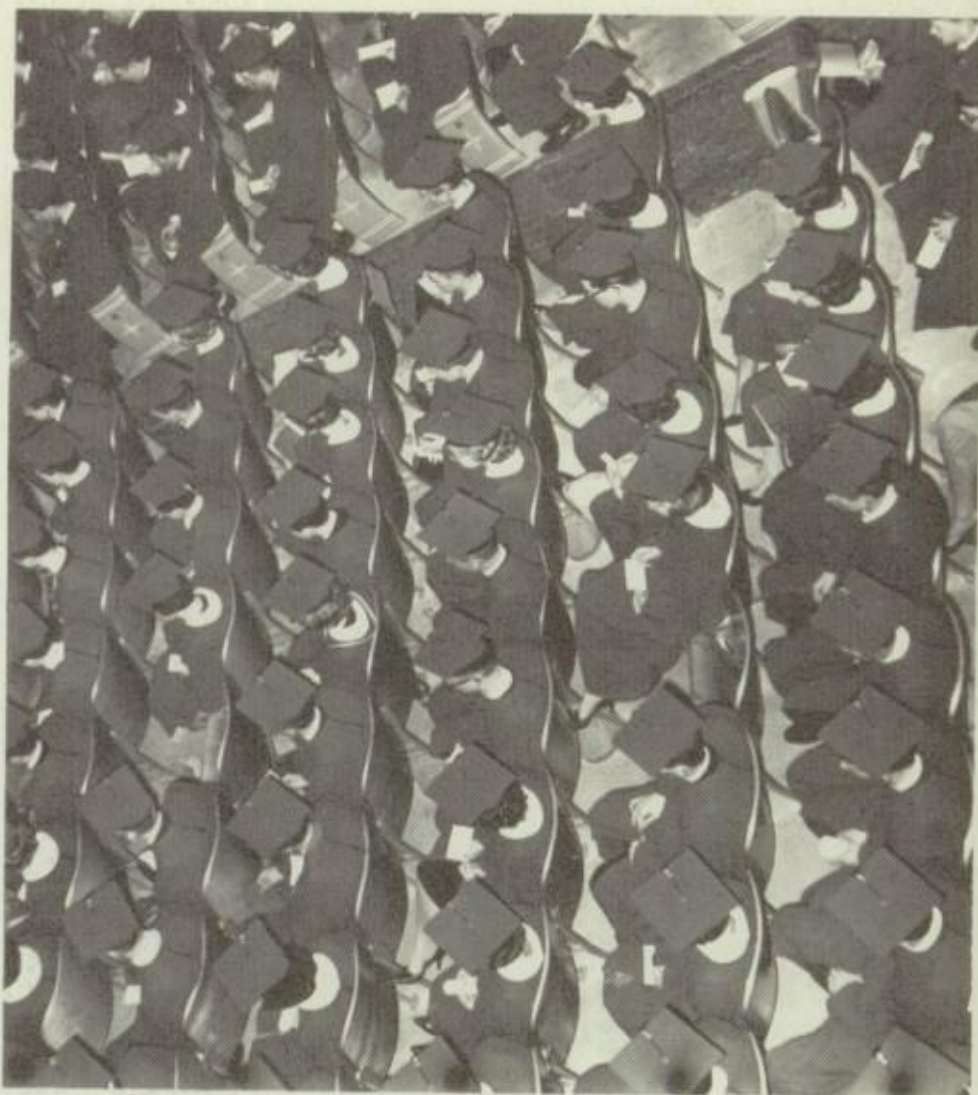

The Senior Prom at Lovett Hall in Greenfield was attended by Steve Writt, Lorraine Chladek, Rosemary Iaquina, Robert Bowbeer, Linda Jones, and Dennis Bronis.

Mr. Ralph Lee, principal, and Miss Lucy Duck, assistant principal, were guests of honor at the Senior Luncheon.

Around 200 students graduated from Cody High School in 1963.

Dickie Lee Bergen is the first graduate to receive The Herman G. Schumacher Scholarship, established by The Cody Parents Club. Mr. Schumacher, retired principal, presented the award at The Honors Convocation.
